and his best man, Maj, Roy O. Henry, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. S. Leonard, the full ring service being used During the ceremony Mrs. Gilbert softly played "Hearts and Flowers." The bride was never more attrac-tive than on this occasion, being becomingly gowned in a tallored sui of gray, with shoes, hat and gloves suite. She wore a corsage quet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore a lovely pink georgette dress and her bouquet also was pink

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride, a few special friends and relatives being invited.
The reception room was in Christmas colors and the dining room was decorated in pink. A two-course wedding luncheon was served from the buffet.

The bride and groom left for a ten days trip, after which they will be at home to their friends with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson at Chickamauga, while Lieut. Henry is with the medical corps of the army. The bride is the eldest daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sparks and the granddaughter and namesake of Mrs. Addle Marsh Warthen, the Marsh family being one of the pioneer at he state. Two dresses of the trousseau were made from the trous-seau of her mother, who, as Miss Warthen, was one of the mos popular young women of this place. Mrs. Henry is a charming and ac-complished young woman and is popular with a wide circle of friends.

The groom is one of the three popu-lar sons of Judge W. M. Henry, of this city, all of whom hold high com-missions in the United States army and is a young man of sterling worth
